February Session

This month, Leadership Sioux Center had a great few days in Des Moines. We toured the historic Capitol Building and had many valuable meetings where we heard about challenges and opportunities for our state. Thank you to Secretary of Ag Mike Naig, Attorney General Brenna Bird, Senator Jeff Taylor, Representative Skyler Wheeler, Iowa Finance Authority & Iowa Economic Development Authority Debi Durham and Lt. Governor Chris Gearhart Cournoyer for meeting with us! We learned so much from all of these leaders and appreciate all they do for our beautiful state!

MARCH 2025 Library Announcements

Bilingual Story Time meets at the library on Monday evenings at 6:30pm throughout the month of March. Some books and activities incorporate Spanish language learning. This is great for both Spanish and English-speaking families!

Leaders connect! The library is hosting a new book club called Lead & Inspire for leaders in the community wanting to enhance and develop their leadership skills. Books are available to pick up at the library. On March 11 at 5:00pm we will be discussing the book High Road Leadership by John Maxwell. Sign up now through the library's website.

The library is excited to offer a Family STEM Night on Thursday, March 13, from 6:00-7:00pm. Families are encouraged to join us to explore robotics, games, and STEM manipulatives!

The Sioux Stitchers group will meet on Tuesday, March 18, at 1:30pm. Visitors are welcome to join us and learn a new skill!

Adults are invited to join us for Cozy Crafting on Tuesday, March 18, at 7:00pm. We will be making pressed flower crafts. Registration is required for this event, so we have enough supplies. Sign up soon as space is limited!

The Dyslexia Support Group will meet on Thursday, March 20, at 7:00pm. We will discuss executive function – what it is, how it affects our dyslexic students at home and at school, and ways to support student with weak executive functioning. Educators, parents, caregivers, and anyone interested in learning about dyslexia are welcome.

Join us at the library for a 'Cent'sible Approach on Tuesday, March 25 at 7:00pm as we prepare our homes for any situation - food wise that is! Dori Berding ends her series with tips and tricks for heirloom gardening and fresh food preservation. Learn ways to grow the foods to fill your pantry and how to preserve them to stay fresh on your shelves.

Chess Club will meet at the library on Thursday, March 27, at 6:30pm. Beginners and experts welcome!

To see a complete list of all the upcoming programs, or to sign up for a library event, please visit our website at www.siouxcenterlibrary.org.

Summit Contracting Celebrating 3 Years of Growth in Sioux Center

Summit Contracting is celebrating its third anniversary in the Sioux Center community on March 30, 2025. Pat Veurink, the Sioux Center Location Manager and Project Manager, has been with Summit since March 2014. "Over my decade of time with Summit Contracting, I have had the privilege of witnessing firsthand the growth and changes that come with a growing company," Pat shared. "My roles have evolved from a crew foreman to managing ordering, procurement, and inventory, to overseeing projects." His extensive experience and leadership ensure Summit Contracting's reputation for delivering timely, high-quality work on area farms. Pat and his wife, Brooke, have four children. Brooke, a lifelong Sioux Center resident, works as a Customer Service Representative at American State Bank.

When Summit decided to expand to Sioux Center, Pat's first impression was that it was "a well-orchestrated, tight-knit community with a deep-rooted reliance on local ag producers." He noticed that the community puts great effort into showing appreciation for its agricultural producers. "The community realizes that ag is the bloodline of life here, which allows other businesses to be successful, as both sides need each other," Pat explained. Over the past three years, this strong agricultural foundation has deepened, reinforcing the importance of working together to support the local economy.

Founded in 2009 by Tyler and Katy Samuelson, Summit Contracting has grown into a full-service on-farm construction company specializing in grain systems, post-frame and metal buildings, and pivot irrigation systems. The company's growth earned it spots on the Inc. 5000 list of fastest-growing private companies in 2023 and 2024. Summit's commitment to quality craftsmanship, strong work ethic, and focus on client satisfaction have allowed it to serve farmers across South Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa, and Kansas.

Summit Contracting strives to be a positive part of the communities it serves. Jerad Hutchens, President of Summit, shares, "What's important at Summit Contracting is supporting the communities we are in by contributing to local economic growth." As the company has grown, it has been rewarding to see the positive impact on rural agricultural communities.

Pat is actively involved in the Sioux Center Chamber, particularly on the Ag Committee. "I enjoy helping with events like the community cookout during the Summer Celebration. We are also excited about the new 'Sioux Grown: Nurtured Locally, Enjoyed Globally' video marketing campaign to help celebrate our agricultural community," Pat shared. These efforts reflect Summit's continued dedication to supporting Sioux Center and fostering positive connections within the agricultural community.

As Summit Contracting celebrates three years in the Sioux Center community, the company looks forward to continuing to be a part of this vibrant area for many years to come. With a focus on ongoing customer support and high-quality service, when you choose Summit Contracting to build your farm structures, you're gaining a trusted partner in your farm's success.
